

THE WASHINGTON PROJECTS

// FACT SHEET (ACCOMPLISHMENTS)

- Featured on the MTV pilot, “It’s your Show”
- Included on the ASCAP’s “The Ear” 2000, along with Sixpence None The Richer, Willie Mack Jeni Fujita and more
- Two original songs appear on the Microsoft’s “Project Gotham Racing” game for XBOX
- Headlined with No Doubt, Kirk Frankin, Nelly Chicago, Ja Rule, Ashanti, Garbage, Counting Crows, Toby Mac, Rachael Lampa, Erykha Badu, Boyz II Men, Sixpence None The Richer, Mary Mary, Jars Of Clay and many others in less than one year during “The Fault Is History Tour”
- First single “All Around The World” broke numerous records including the fastest rise to the number one position on CHR Format by a new urban/hip-hop artist
- Second single “True Love Waits” was most added on CHR and AC formats{ First New Urban Group to have a single most added on CHR and AC formats simultaneously}
- Nominated for (5) five Dove Awards:
- 2003 - Urban Album of the year {won} - Best New Artist - Rap/Hip-Hop/Dance Recorded Song of the Year {won}
- 2004 - Rap/HipHop Recorded Song of the Year - Urban Recorded Song of the year
- Nominated for (3) Sweden Connection Awards including Group of the Year and International Album of the Year
- Featured on Sessions@AOL with Christina Aguilera, 50 Cent, Shania Twain, Faith Hill, Red Hot Chili Peppers and many more
- Featured on TBS Superstation’s network Premiere of Blade
- Featured performance & interview on CNN Headline News
- Other appearances include, E!TV, Billboard, PAX, KUSI, The WB and more
- First New Urban Artist in CCM to close an internationally televised world concert at the coveted Radio City Music Hall
- Youngest female composer/producer/songwriter in the history of WB _Records (Rachael, age 17 beating Prince age 19)
- First New Hip-Hop/Funk/Soul Group to write, produce, executive produce, co-engineer, and record their debut major label album on (WB Records)
- First New Hip-Hop/Funk/Soul Group to be nominated for (5) five Dove Awards with the same Record
- First New Hip-Hop/Funk/Soul Group to receive multiple Dove nominations for the same record two years in a row
- Partnered with the USO on two holiday tours to Iraq, Baghdad and other middle east war zones to perform for & support the troops. Dec 2005 and Dec 2006

- Partnered with the USO on a holiday tour to Italy alongside The Nappy Roots to perform for & support the troops. Dec 2008
- The music video for “Take It To The Streets” was featured on GMC & took the #1 spot for 3 weeks in a row
- The music video for “You Are My World” was featured on GMC & took the #1 spot for 2 weeks in a row
- The single “Justus” was featured on a compilation release entitled “Freedom” that went on to sell more than 150,000 copies generating over $1 Million dollars to fund global efforts to free victims of violent oppression & sex & labor slavery